Our cooperation with Ms Inga Raczko-Runkiewicz, who is currently operating under the name Biuro Tłumaczeń In-Translate, has been going on for almost a decade. We have used the In-Translate's services, both in regular and sworn translations.

During the many years of cooperation, the Agency has prepared for us the translation of various documents, in particular contracts or official correspondence, including documents requiring specialized legal or technical terminology.

The undeniable advantage of Biuro Tłumaczeń In-Translate is the ability to work effectively under the pressure of time. The Agency team copes in such situations very well. We have never had any reservations about the quality of translations, the timeliness or the level of service of our company. Translations are always delivered within the agreed time frame and are characterized by a high level of linguistic quality.

The trust built during the many years of cooperation and the satisfaction of our company allow us to fully recommend Biuro Tłumaczeń In-Translate as a professional, reliable and recommendable partner.
